 - F. Unfinished business
 - G. Elections
 - H. Installation of officers and/or new members
 - I. New business
 - J. Adjournment

ARTICLE VII - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1 Membership in the ECOMC shall be open to all adult male East Cooper area residents who are interested in recreational boating, fishing, and the outdoors in general.

Section 2 Applicants for membership must be at least twenty-one years of age, and shall be continuous residents of the East Cooper area for a minimum of one year prior to submitting the application for membership. Sons of members, or grandsons of members who have no sons, may submit applications for membership at age eighteen, but must meet all requirements for membership at the time their applications are presented to the Executive Committee by the Membership Chairman.

Section 3 Application for membership in the ECOMC shall be made in a manner prescribed by the Executive Committee via the Membership Chairman. The application, in its approved form, shall contain an agreement to abide by the By-Laws of the club. The application for membership must be made by a member sponsor, as allowed by Article VII, Section 5 and two endorsers, all of whom are members in good standing, and who has personal knowledge of the applicant. The application must be accompanied by a recent photograph of the candidate and contain all information requested on the form.

Section 4 Upon presentation of a new candidate for membership, any club member with a reason why the individual should not be considered must inform one of the Executive Committee members of his reasons. The Executive Committee shall re-evaluate the candidate to determine if the reasons given are substantial enough to warrant exclusion from the club. If the Executive Committee finds no reason to exclude the candidate, he will be voted on at the next regularly scheduled club meeting. The sponsor/sponsors, but not the candidate, must be present for the voting.

Section 5 Voting shall be by secret ballot, with a minimum of two-thirds of the votes cast in favor of the candidate indicating acceptance. After notification and payment of all required fees and dues, the candidate shall be considered as a member, with full rights and privileges.

Section 6 Each member shall pay an additional sum as designated, over and above regular dues, into the Island Development Fund, payable in full at the time membership is approved.

Section 7 There shall be no honorary memberships in the ECOMC.

Section 8 A roster shall be prepared during each club year listing the names of all members, and made available to any member upon request.

Section 9 Any member may have his membership revoked at any meeting of the club for just cause, upon recommendation of the Executive Committee, and provided that two-thirds of the members present are in agreement. The Executive Committee shall have the power to suspend any member, suspend any member's privilege(s), or suspend the member's right to use the club ground or facilities who, in the judgment of the Executive Committee, has violated the By-Laws or House Rules of the club. This suspension can last for a period of no longer than one year, without review. The Executive Committee shall report any suspension at the next regular meeting of the club. (Although not identifying the member)

Any member who has been suspended or had his privileges suspended by the Executive Committee has the right to appeal the Executive Committee's decision to the full membership upon written notice to Commodore. The Commodore shall schedule a vote at the next regular club meeting where the membership may overturn or modify the Executive Committee's decision by a majority vote.

Any member of the Executive Committee has the authority to remove any person on club property, for just cause, for a period not to exceed 24 hours.

Section 10 There shall be a maximum of 200 regular members in the ECOMC, and a membership is not transferable. (Life members are not included in the 200 member limitation.)

Should a member in good standing die; his widow may within a reasonable time after his death, choose to exercise either or both of two options with regard to ECOMC:

1) She, and any children under the age of twenty-one whose place of residence is the same as hers shall be allowed continued use of club property, be permitted to attend appropriate social functions of the club, and continue to receive the monthly newsletter. She may have no voting privileges in ECOMC. Should she ever re-marry, these privileges shall be terminated.

Section 11 2) She may be a member of the Ladies Auxiliary.

If she chooses to exercise option (1), she shall be responsible for payment of ECOMC annual dues and fees. Furthermore, the member's son(s) who were on the "SON'S MEMBERSHIP LIST" at the time of the member's death may remain thereon so long as they meet all other requirements of the "SON'S MEMBERSHIP LIST".

If she chooses to exercise option (2), she shall be responsible for any dues required by the Ladies Auxiliary.

Life membership will be awarded to members who are 65 years of age, and have been a member in good standing of ECOMC for at least 20 years, and who shall make formal application to the Executive Committee for Life Member status.

Section 12 Life members shall NOT be responsible for payment of annual dues or assessments. Life members shall NOT be counted on the list of 200 active members. Life members SHALL be eligible to hold office, vote in all elections and receive all other benefits of ECOMC membership."

ARTICLE VIII - DUES

Section 1 Membership fees and dues shall be set by the Executive Committee with the approval of two-thirds of the membership present at any meeting.

Section 2 Dues are payable on May 1st, and are considered in arrears if not paid by the 31st. Without exception, all dues that are collected will be held in escrow for the coming fiscal (beginning September 1st) year budget needs.

Section 3 Members who have not paid their dues by June 1st shall be suspended from the rolls and notified of suspension by certified, return receipt requested, mail. Should the member fail to pay his dues by June 15th, he shall be considered as a member "not in good standing", notified by mail, and dropped from the rolls.

Section 4 Any member under suspension, or any former member who has been dropped from the rolls for violation of the By-Laws or House Rules, shall not be permitted the use of club grounds, dock, or clubhouse, even when in the company of another member. If found to be in violation of this section, the offending member shall be requested to appear before the Executive Committee to provide an acceptable reason as to why he should not also be suspended from the club for violation of House Rules.

ARTICLE IX - RESIGNATIONS

Section 1 Resignations must be forwarded to the Treasurer in writing, be presented by him at the next meeting of the Executive Committee, and shall become effective at that meeting. No refund of annual dues shall be made.

Section 2 No resignation will be accepted until the member is clear from all indebtedness to the club.

ARTICLE X - CORPORATE SEAL

- Section 1 The corporate seal shall be a Gold Bug showing six feet with head facing left, having two eyes, two visible antennae and encircled by the club name as an appropriate border. A club flag, burgee, or shoulder patch must carry the same design.

ARTICLE XI - HOUSE RULES

Anyone may become a "member not in good standing" and may lose his membership for violating any of the House Rules.

* Specific examples include:

- Section 1 A. The loaning of your gate key to a non-member
 B. Leaving the gate unlocked when entering or exiting the club grounds.
 C. Leaving the clubhouse dirty
 D. Stealing club property
 E. Using the club under false pretenses
 F. Destruction of club property
 G. Disrespect for other members while using club property

* A complete listing of House Rules is posted in the clubhouse.

ARTICLE XII - BY-LAWS

These By-Laws may be repealed, added to, altered, amended, or suspended as follows:

- Section 1 A. Notice and listing of any change, addition, or deletion, and the date of consideration must be provided to the membership prior to the date of consideration; and

 B. Any change, addition, or deletion must be approved by a two-thirds majority of the members present.

ECOMC HOUSE RULES

- 1 All members shall be issued yearly membership cards and decals. Membership cards must be shown to any member upon request and decals must be attached and displayed in the bottom driver's side corner of the vehicle windshield.
- 2 Members shall agree to abide by all established rules for club members and shall conduct themselves in a gentleman-like manner at all times.
- 3 Members shall be responsible for the conduct and safety of all family members and guests while on club property.
- 4 Members launching their boats may invite one guest vehicle/boat/trailer, and one other guest vehicle, provided that a membership card is placed on the dash of the guest vehicle/boat/trailer, and a note signed by the member is placed on the dash of the second guest vehicle.
- 5 Mature sons and daughters who are under the age of 21 years, and members' wives, whose place of residence is the same as a member's may use the boat landing without being accompanied by the member. Sons, Daughters and Wives are not allowed to invite guest boats. No son or daughter who is 21 years of age or older, may use the facilities except as a guest accompanied by the member. Sons, Daughters and Wives on club property without the ECOMC member present shall identify themselves to any member when requested.
- 6 The ECOMC is not responsible for any loss or damage to personal property of members or guests while they are using club facilities.
- 7 Members shall have the privilege of using the club grounds, boating facilities, and of attending all social functions scheduled by the ECOMC.
- 8 Members shall have the privilege to use the club for private meetings or social functions upon request and approval of the Executive Committee (via the House Committee Chairman); payment of all associated security deposits must accompany the request.
- 9 Members are responsible for any cleaning and maintenance associated with private social functions or meetings held on club property, including (but not limited to) the disposal of trash, litter, and garbage. Failure to do this will result in the forfeiture of any security deposits held by the House Committee Chairman.
- 10 Members are responsible for the protection of club property from all damages while using the facilities.

11 Members responsible for insuring that vehicles under their control are parked in such a way so that they do not interfere with entry to, or exit from the club grounds and boat landing occupied vehicles or trailers are not permitted on the causeway leading to the clubhouse or boat landing.

12 Complaint(s) against the club by a member must be in writing and addressed to the Secretary. The member shall be invited to the next Executive Committee meeting to discuss his complaint(s), and to seek resolution.

13 Committee members are charged with the enforcement of all House Rules, as well as reporting any infractions to the Executive Committee.

14 The Executive Committee reserves the right to deny requests from any member for the use of the boat landing, dock, or any portion of the club property, where the personal safety of club members maybe in question. This includes the right to close all properties at any time for the purpose of repair, maintenance or improvements being made.

15 Members must participate in a minimum of seven (7) Work Parties and/or monthly Meetings or other activity focused on maintenance of the club's property or mission (e.g. Turkey shoot; building & dock maintenance, etc.) each year, from May 1st thru April 30th or pay an assessment in an amount determined by the board to remain a member in good standing. During their first year, Probation Members must attend six (6) meetings and participate in two (2) work parties.

16 Skeet shooting (shot guns only) is allowed on club property by members and their guest. A member or member's spouse must be present at all times when skeet is being shot. Skeet shooting is permitted only in the northeast quadrant of the club property. Skeet is NOT to be shot over the marsh at any time.

No other firearms (e.g., pistols, rifles) are to be discharged on club property.

17 Members may temporarily store their boats on club property only in a location and for a duration approved in advance by the House Chairman.

18 Members may camp on club property for no more than one night with prior approval from the House chairman. No open fires are permitted except in designated burn area.

19 Members are allowed to take a maximum of 48 quarts of ice from the clubhouse ice machine prior to embarking on a boating outing. Members are allowed to use ice when renting the club at the sole discretion of the House Committee Chairman.
